“As We Come to You in Prayer”

Now, Dear Lord, as we pray,
Take our hearts and minds far away
From the press of the world all around
To Your throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your love,
May our souls be refreshed from above.
At this moment, let people everywhere
Join us now as we come to You in prayer.

To Reflect His Character Clearly

“The latter rain, falling near the close of the season, ripens the grain, and prepares it for the sickle. . . . The ripening of the grain represents the completion of the work of God’s grace in the soul. By the power of the Holy Spirit, the moral image of God is to be perfected in the character.” Testimonies to Ministers, p. 506
